

The Awakening in the story
water the soul...
is enough
to swim
in it
as in
a sea -
this
life.
Just
being
is enough.
Whitman

Literary fiction
is about more
than story.

change the
pattern

change the
dominant story of school...

You can't write it if you don't feel it - can't feel it if it isn't valued.

nothing seen (so nothing valued) that doesn't feed
the family values.

students aren't asked enough how they feel... developing a sense of self...

feel
looser
by
letting
go...
more
alive
as you
stop
holding
the
pressures
of life.

well-adjusted in a profoundly sick society
what do my
hands
know?
what
value
do you
give
a tree?
we don't want
power.
we want
appreciation.
Trying to change
dominant
writing
pattern.
your writing
matters.
change of heart & soul

electric
body
what would
the world be
like if there
are more
loafers?

human
beings
have an
urge for
art
